"The glass of I Capitani is very personal. Fleshy, aromatic, spicy White wines of really unique sensation. True scents of the grape and flowers with great intensity are in the white wine Fiano di Avellino Gaudium 2010 (pear, jasmine, citrus) and in the red wine Emè 2008 (violet, blackberry, black cherry). Two great wines models for consistency and pleasantness. So the meeting with the Faius 2009 and its absolute merit. At these levels of softness and cleanliness of perfume, the wine becomes an expression of nature with the result enveloping and flowing as pure distilled essence of his flesh. One of the best white wines of Italy of this wine guide, one of the best ever. Chapeau."

"Wines of this delicious winery started in the 90s by Ciriaco Cefalo and his family, show an inexorable and long growth, year after year. To try their Taurasi Bosco Faiano 2006, surely among the best Taurasi versions. Infact this is a square and incisive Taurasi with stern but sincere tannins."

- <> Taurasi Bosco Faiano 2006 - 2 stars

"The results of taste show high-level white wines : Falanghina Clarum is tasty and balmy, with a clear memory of grapefruit, rose, pineapple and banana. The Fiano Gaudium is decided and full, with notes of citrus, vegetables and roasted hazelnut. Among the red wines Aglianico Jumara is a great discovery, intense, with hints of black cherry overtones and hints of wood, pulp, almonds and cinnamon. Taurasi was excellent, spicy and overripe."

Wine Enthusiast Magazine USA

- <> Fiano di Avellino Gaudium - 90 POINTS

"Gaudium is a radically unique expression of Fiano that might not appeal to everyone but that definitely shows careful craftsmanship and execution. The nose is redolent of crushed clove and exotic spice (aromas you'd almost expect to find in a red wine) closely followed by fresh melon, pear and peach."

- <> Emè - 89 Points

"I Capitani, a family-run winery in Irpinia, delivers an elegant blend of Aglianico, Piediroso and Sangiovese with well-balanced aromas of cherry, raspberry, blue flower and Indian spice. The wine has bright berry flavors, sticky tannins and a long, succulent finish."

- <> Taurasi "Bosco Faiano" - 89 Points

"I Capitani, a dynamic family-run winery not far from Taurasi, opts for a traditional wine that puts more emphasis on elegance and complexity and less focus on brawn and power. Aromas include cherry, cola, tar, licorice and red apple. The wine is already a bit brownish on its edges, so don't wait long to drink it."

- <> Greco di Tufo "Serum" - 88 Points

"Serum opens with dusty mineral aromas backed by stone fruit, white peach, tangerine skin and almond paste. The really nice thing about this wine is the polished, drying feel it imparts on the close."

Gilbert & Gaillard 2012

Our wines selected on Chinese edition of the prestigious international wine guide Gilbert & Gaillard.

<> Aurum Silvae Ravece - 2 Leaves

"The 2011 season there seems to be a bit different than the other for the top label Aurum Silvae. Ravece in purity on the nose has a delicate, smoky and spicy focused on impressions rather than on the usual herbs and balsamic nuances. The taste is more intense and decided [...]"

Guida agli Extravergini 2012 - Slow Food Editore

<> Aurum Silvae Ravece

This oil has a great character. It express itself with an intense fruity nose: green herbaceous aromas and so artichoke, tomato and celery. At tasting shows full body and decided, but always well balanced bitter-spicy flavor, highlighted by delicious vegetal notes. Long finish, with the tipical bitterness that persists very good.
